11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
12 Plaintiff,
13 v.
14 CHAD EDWARD LARSON CZISNY,
15 Defendant.
16

Case No. SACR 15-00024-CJC
JUDGMENT CONTINUING
SUPERVISED RELEASE AND COMMITMENT ORDER

17
18 On July 28, 2022, in the presence of the attorney for the Government
19 Brad Marrett, the defendant appeared in person with appointed counsel
20 Correen Ferrentino of the Criminal Justice Act Panel. The defendant
21 waived reading and advisement of his rights and admitted the violations
22 alleged in Paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 10 and 11 of the Petition on Probation
23 and Supervised Release (Citation) filed on June 27, 2022 (the "Petition").

24
25 In light of the defendant's admissions, the Court finds that the 26 defendant has violated the conditions of his supervised release that were 27 imposed on February 4, 2019. The original term of supervision imposed in 28 this case on February 4, 2019, was revoked on December 20, 2021.

1 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ADJUDGED, upon the findings of the
2 Court, the period of supervised release is continued on supervised release
3 under the terms and conditions originally imposed, with the following
4 modification to the conditions of supervision:
5

6 1. The defendant shall reside for 120 days in a residential reentry
7 center (community corrections component), as directed by the Probation
8 Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility.
9

10 2. The defendant shall participate in an intensive outpatient
11 substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes
12 urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation
13 Officer.
14

15 On the Government's motion, the violations alleged in Paragraphs 6,
16 8, and 9 of the Petition are dismissed.
17

18 Paragraph 12 is held in abeyance.
19

20 The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.
